

THIRTEEN SYSTEMS, ONE PICTURE

Stellium Codex

This reading is an invitation to self-reflection, not a judgement or prediction.

About this portrait

This document weaves more than a dozen interpretive systems into a single, coherent image. It is not a judgement and not a prediction, but a map of the self: an invitation to see oneself more clearly and more kindly. Each system is a different language describing the same landscape. What matters most is not a single placement but the patterns that recur across very different traditions.

Born on 14 March 1989 at 14:35 in Zurich, Switzerland. The birth instant resolves to 14 March 1989 13:35 UTC (timezone Europe/Zurich, offset +01:00, DST off). All computable values are derived from the Swiss Ephemeris; Human Design and Gene Keys are a reasoned approximation.

Your Purpose

Where several independent systems point the same way, a direction appears that is worth taking seriously. This chapter orders those directions. It describes leanings and themes, it does not foretell a fate.

- 1 Healing and nurturing 70 %
- 2 Depth and knowledge 65 %
- 3 Initiating and pioneering 53 %
- 4 Leadership and vision 51 %
- 5 Creativity and expression 50 %

Each ring is a direction. The longer the gold arc, the more clearly the systems point there.

1. Healing and nurturing

The direction in which you create support, care and restoration for others.

Evidence: Sun in Pisces in the 8th house · Life's Work: Gene Key 36, gift Humanity · Lagna lord Moon in Gemini · North Node in Pisces in the 8th house · Day master Yin Water, weak · Tarot birth card: Strength · Dreamspell seal: White Dog

As a pattern, this combination appears in about one in 9,216 people. Estimate: how often the rarest placements behind this direction meet in one person, assuming they are independent.

2. Depth and knowledge

The direction in which research and the understanding of hidden connections are central.

Evidence: Sun in Pisces in the 8th house · North Node in Pisces in the 8th house · Day master Yin Water, weak · Main circuit: individual (2 channels) · Dominant element Water · Favourable element: Water · Cholq'ij nawal: No'j

As a pattern, this combination appears in about one in 2,880 people. Estimate: how often the rarest placements behind this direction meet in one person, assuming they are independent.

3. Initiating and pioneering

The direction in which you take the first step and set something new in motion.

Evidence: Midheaven (MC) in Aries, ruled by Mars · 10th house lord: Mars in Taurus · Mars and Jupiter in the 10th house · Manifesting Generator, strategy: To respond, then inform · Maturity 1

As a pattern, this combination appears in about one in 36 people. Estimate: how often the rarest placements behind this direction meet in one person, assuming they are independent.

4. Leadership and vision

The direction in which you give orientation, carry responsibility and gather others around a goal.

Evidence: Vocation (Pearl): Gene Key 21, gift Authority · Life path 8 · Midheaven (MC) in Aries, ruled by Mars · Maturity 1 · Raja Yoga (kendra and trikona lords) yoga · Tarot birth card: Strength · 10th house lord: Mars in Taurus

As a pattern, this combination appears in about one in 768 people. Estimate: how often the rarest placements behind this direction meet in one person, assuming they are independent.

5. Creativity and expression

The direction in which something of your own finds a visible form: as a work, a performance or a voice.

Evidence: Sun in Pisces in the 8th house · North Node in Pisces in the 8th house · Dominant ten god: Eating God (Shi Shen) · Main circuit: individual (2 channels) · Atmakaraka (soul planet): Venus · Manifesting Generator, strategy: To respond, then inform · Expression 11

As a pattern, this combination appears in about one in 1,008 people. Estimate: how often the rarest placements behind this direction meet in one person, assuming they are independent.

The shadow side

The same forces have another side. Here is where they can become tiring.

Straining element: Wood

In the BaZi picture the element Wood supports the day master less. It points to a field where balance asks for attention.

Evidence: Unfavourable element: Wood

Shadow of Life's Work: Turbulence

Gene Key 36: the shadow is Turbulence. It describes the pattern that shows under pressure, and sits on the same line as the gift Humanity.

Evidence: Life's Work: Gene Key 36, shadow Turbulence

Challenge 2

The current challenge number 2 stands for sensitivity and boundaries. It names a field of practice for this phase of life.

Evidence: Challenge number 2 (sensitivity and boundaries) · Karmic numbers 14, 14

The Saturn task

Saturn stands in the area of Service, Work & Healing. Building feels slow here, and that is where an exercise in patience and reliability sits.

Evidence: Saturn in Capricorn in the 6th house

Three points to take with you

1. Your profile carries Healing and nurturing most clearly. 6 systems point that way: BaZi, Gene Keys, Maya, Tarot, Vedic astrology, Western astrology.
2. After that come Depth and knowledge and Initiating and pioneering.
3. A field of practice shows up: Straining element: Wood.

ALL TOGETHER

Taken together the evidence forms a pattern that appears in about one in 9,884,160 people. A rough estimate. It multiplies the rarest features from up to three mutually independent families (Sun and Moon, planetary patterns, date numbers, day counts). Independence is a simplification, and the value is capped at one billion.

The birth wheel

The sky at the moment of birth, as seen from Earth. The Ascendant sits on the left horizon and the signs run anticlockwise. The wheel shows positions. It predicts nothing.

Western Astrology

Astrology reads the sky at the moment of birth as a symbolic portrait of the psyche. The Sun is the core self, the Moon the inner feeling life, the Ascendant the way one meets the world.

Keyword: mercy

Moon, 25°41' Gemini, rounds to degree 26

A stranger asks the way and stays to talk.

Keyword: encounter

Mercury, 6°03' Pisces, rounds to degree 7

A violin plays in an empty house, and the walls listen.

Keyword: feeling

Venus, 18°32' Pisces, rounds to degree 19

A pale moon hangs over a marsh full of frogs' song.

Keyword: mystery

BaZi · Four Pillars of Destiny

The Chinese Four Pillars system encodes the birth moment in the five elements and their yin/yang polarity, across four pillars.

PILLAR	STEM / BRANCH	ELEMENT	HIDDEN STEMS	TEN GODS
Hour	Ji / Wei	Yin Earth	Ji · Ding · Yi	Seven Killings (Qi Sha)
Day (Self)	Gui / You	Yin Water	Xin	Day master
Month	Ding / Mao	Yin Fire	Yi	Indirect Wealth (Pian Cai)
Year	Ji / Si	Yin Earth	Bing · Geng · Wu	Seven Killings (Qi Sha)

Day master: Gui, Yin Water.

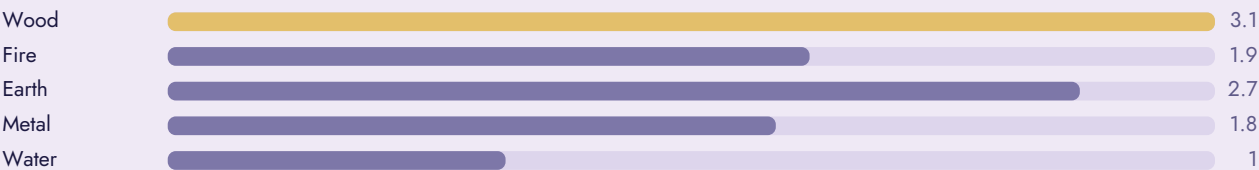

Day master strength: weak (support share 19 %)

Supporting elements: Water and Metal

Challenging elements: Wood, Fire and Earth

A simplified rule of thumb, not a full Ziping analysis. It describes which elements carry the pattern and which challenge it.

ELEMENTS IN THE CHART

Annual pillar 2026: Bing Wu, Yang Fire, Direct Wealth (Zheng Cai)

Luck pillars, ten-year periods

Each pillar describes a ten-year period, with the ages at which it begins and ends. The gold pillar holds the reference date.

Without a stated gender both counting directions are computed.

The tradition wears the gems of Saturn, Rahu and Ketu only after consulting an experienced teacher.
